

Workshop: Scientific Pluralism, Ontology, and Values

Sala 1A, Campus B (Av. Los Leones 1200, Providencia)

Universidad Alberto Hurtado

Lunes 11 de mayo

- 15:00 One Race, Many Ontologies: Unity for Racial Pluralism
Joaquim Giannotti · Universidad Mayor
- 15:35 The Dual Nature of Evidence: Justification, Decision and the Role of Values in Science
Maribel Barroso · Universidad Alberto Hurtado
- 16:10 Receso
- 16:30 Levels of organization as natural kinds
Jorge Ignacio Fuentes · Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile
- 17:05 Fruitful trading zones: material inequalities, scientific repertoires, and epistemic diversity in global science
Juliana Gutiérrez Valderrama · Universidad de los Andes (Colombia)
- 17:40 Receso
- 18:00 Ontological choices in affective science
Juan Raúl Loaiza · Universidad Alberto Hurtado

Martes 12 de mayo

- 9:00 Epistemology of the State: The Linear Model and the Erosion of Technological Capabilities in Chilean Mining (1971–2024)
Juan Manuel Garrido Wainer · Universidad Alberto Hurtado
Cecilia Ibarra · Universidad de Chile
Juan F. Espinosa Cristia · Utrecht University (Países Bajos)
Nicolás A. Trujillo Osorio · Universidad Alberto Hurtado
- 9:45 When Regulatory Competence Becomes Invisible. Astronomical matters and the Governance of Big Science in the Global South
Nicolás Trujillo Osorio · Universidad Alberto Hurtado
- 10:30 Receso
- 10:45 Laws, Ontological Choices, and Values: Pluralism and the Nomic Stance
Cristián Soto · Universidad de Chile
- 11:30 Receso
- 11:45 After the Natural/Non-Natural Divide. New Horizons for Classifying a Messy World
David Ludwig · Wageningen University and Research (Países Bajos)